

OPPOSING FORCE:

F-15 AGRS

for 6mmFlyRC's F-15 Eagle

The 65th Aggressor Squadron is part of the USAF's 57th Adversary Tactics Group. They fly F-15 Eagles painted to look similar to Su-27 Flankers and MiG-29 Fulcrums, and are trained to use Soviet-derived tactics and manoeuvres. In training exercises such as Red Flag they take on the adversary role, providing a chance for USAF pilots to experience engagements against the type of enemy they would likely encounter in real combat situations. Their sister squadron, the 64th, undertakes the same role employing F-16 Fighting Falcons.

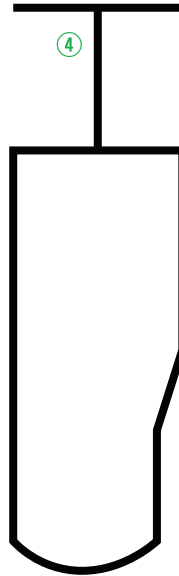

This decal set provides marking for either a blue "Flanker" scheme or a desert "MiG" scheme. As well as markings for two operational aircraft, additional stencils are provided to allow you to make custom designations.
